

MEMPHIS APPEAL

SATURDAY, MAR. 17, 1866.

Office—No. 13 Madison Street.

LOCAL MATTERS.

RECONSTRUCTION.—Ten individuals were up before the Recorder, and fines imposed to the amount of $125. Nine of the offenders were men and one a white woman.

PERSONAL.—Our young friend Capt. Brumley, a distinguished cavalry officer in Confederate times, arrived yesterday and is stopping at the Gayoso. We are indebted to him for late St. Louis papers.

HOLD TO RAIL IN 1860.—The negro White, charged with stealing hams from Mr. Sullivan, had hearing before Esquire Clegg yesterday, and was held on bail $1000, in default of which he was sent to jail.

ALL WHO FAVOR THE POLICY OF PRESENT JOHNSON ARE REQUESTED TO MEET AT MR. PRESTWIT'S, ON Poplar street, nearly opposite St. Mary's Church, this evening, at half past seven o'clock, take several important measures intended to secure the safety of our country.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN.—We are glad to learn that the charge of unswerving fidelity to the Union, taken against Mr. Stratton several days ago, has been withdrawn by the prosecutor, and he is thus honorably relieved from the impulsive unlawfulness cast upon him.

SOUTHERN SOLDIERS HOME.—We find it necessary to caution the public against giving any aid or comfort to the Southern army to any person who either wholly or partially acquits himself of them or they have the official endorsement of D. J. Allen, Secretary Southern Soldiers Home, or J. W. Knott, Agent.

CLOUDS.—A negro was arrested on a charge of stealing and killing a cow which did not belong to him, and the cause identified by the color of the tail of the cow as evidence of his guilt. The warrant was served by Esquire Clegg, and the trial will have a hearing before that officer Monday.

TIMELY IMPROVEMENT.—We are glad to observe that the last of the unseemly Government terrors on the levee is in rapid process of removal, and in a day or two we may expect to see a multitude of small street merchants at an income of over $1000 a month, required for the consideration and action of the Committee on the Slave Trade.

ESQUIRE CLEGHTON.—We are informed, on good authority, that the imputations cast upon a repeated decision of the court which appeared in one of the city dailies two days ago, have been formally withdrawn by the person making the statement, and the explanation given that he was so much influenced by humor and passion.

NOTICE TO POLICE.—In this court the motion for an injunction in the case of Cockrell v. Vance, was granted.

The arguments of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Smith, and of Mr. Clegg and Co. vs. Mr. Clegg, explained from Wednesday, were resumed and concluded. This case, which involves about three thousand dollars, is an action on promissory note, the payment of which is made by the defendant, who promises to pay the amount of the note and satisfaction of the debt, as follows: That in March, 1862, defendant wrote to plaintiff that he was unable to pay his debt, unless plaintiff would take certain at ten cents per pound. This letter was filed in evidence. Plaintiff relied in the letter, stating that they would take the action, if delivered at North Mount Pleasant, Miss., within two or three weeks. The action was accordingly stayed at said place, with the time suspended, to the amount of ten days, and the note was paid off at the time of trial, and the defendant, and consequently the defendant, must sustain the loss of the note.

The defendant, on the other hand, claims a full discharge on ground that the note was paid off at North Mount Pleasant, and that the time designated, was a completion of the contract, and that the property therein vested in the plaintiff, from the time of such delivery. A large number of authorities were cited in support of each claim, and the argument, and the fall of the discussion thereto, the counsel were requested to offer written instructions for the jury, and Court adjourned to ten o'clock this morning.
